THE COLOR SYSTEM

BONE	NIGHT	COBALT	CITRON	LILAC
#F5F4F0	#141820	#2449E8	#DDF06A	#CABBEA

A vivid, structured identity that gives your projects a strong visual signature. Large geometric type and one bright accent create energy without crowding the work.

THE RULES THAT KEEP IT COHESIVE

Typography

Sora 600-700 for display. Manrope 400-600 for readable body copy. Two families only.

Color balance

Mostly bone and night. Cobalt anchors important areas; citron appears in small details.

Layout

Clear columns. Strong scale changes. One dominant headline. Reuse the progression motif.

Photography

An authentic portrait with crisp light and a clean backdrop. Use bold color in the surrounding layout.

READABLE COLOR PAIRS

Night on bone: 16.2:1

Bone on cobalt: 6.0:1

Small accent colors are for graphics, not body text.

THE COLOR SYSTEM

LINEN	INK	PINE	CLAY	SAND
#F5F1E9	#232B29	#27483F	#B06146	#DCCCBA

A human, editorial identity for someone who brings order to complex work. The serif adds personality; a clean sans serif keeps the details practical.

A brand with substance behind the style.

Your name stays consistent. Your headline and selected work can adapt to employers, clients or a future venture. The shared idea is better systems: connecting business needs, digital tools and practical execution so operations run more smoothly.

THREE THEMES TO BUILD YOUR STORY AROUND

Operations

Digital commerce, vendor coordination and day-to-day problem solving.

Systems

Requirements, quality checks, workflow execution and enhancement tracking.

Communication

Making work understandable through clear briefs, documentation and follow-through.

VOICE

Direct. Curious. Specific. Human.

Lead with a real problem, explain what you contributed, then show evidence. Write in plain language. Keep completed work and learning projects clearly labeled.

WHAT WOULD IMPROVE THE NEXT ROUND

Selected direction

Bold & Expressive is your chosen identity. The warm option is retained as a reference.

One portrait

A clear, high-resolution photo gives the identity a real human focal point.

Two or three references

Websites, book covers or profiles you like reveal preferences beyond color names.

One priority audience

Choose an employer, client or community first so the message has a clear reader.

YOUR KIT IS READY TO USE

Use direction-3-bold for your public materials. Carry its logos, fonts, website styles and social templates across your channels.

Use the name first. Use AP when space is limited.

LinkedIn: official cover image dimensions

You have the guide. Here are the working assets.

USE	FILE	HOW
Website logo	logos/wordmark-ink.svg	Sharp at any size; choose reverse on dark backgrounds.
Website styles	styles.css + fonts/	Copy together; font paths are relative to the stylesheet.
Website favicon	logos/favicon.svg	Compact AP mark for a browser tab.
Colors & rules	brand-tokens.json	Exact colors, font roles, spacing and size rules.
Visual reference	brand-reference.html	Open locally to see the system and component examples.
LinkedIn cover	templates/linkedin-banner-1584x396.png	Upload to your personal profile cover image.
Social content	templates/social-*.svg + matching PNGs	Edit the SVG text; export PNG when ready to share.

FIRST THREE ACTIONS

1. Use direction-3-bold, your selected identity.
2. Install Sora and Manrope, then upload the matching LinkedIn banner.
3. Keep the cobalt and citron system across your website and social posts.

Use a recognizable photo of yourself for your personal LinkedIn profile. Use AP for your favicon, project thumbnails or a brand account.

Reference the principles. Make the identity yours.
